

YOUR TOOL KIT FOR CREATING AN EXCEPTIONAL ORGANIZATION!

Everything you need to teach the concepts in William Brandt's award winning book:

COMPASS: Creating Exceptional Organizations

52 specially packaged Lessons, Essays, Interviews and PowerPoint™ slides make it easy to provide your company or organization with all the unique principles and processes for building an Exceptional Organization.

The detailed information shows your executives, managers and employees step-by-step how to make their organization viable, sustainable and valued - while also stressing not only the pursuit of “self-interest” but also “concern for others.”

The BOOK is designed for easy training use:

- It lays-flat for convenient copying of each Lesson, Essay and Interview you select as handouts to your class attendees.
- Reproducible pages from the book and accompanying CD allow you to customize the materials for presentation to various size audiences.

The CD (inside the back cover) also contains:

- 37 printable handouts in PDF format, and
- 15 Power Point™ Presentation Slides

At total of 52 handy training materials that can be used for class presentations and sent to participants before and after the training sessions.
